LOCAL MATTERS.

THE WEATHER To-DAY .- From our re the weather to-day will be clear.

THE PROPOSED REGIMENTAL ENCAMPMENT First Virginia regiment held a meeting last COTTON TRIMMINGS at the lowest prices ever night, at which the subject of the proposed Alum Springs was further considered. It appearing that only three companies intended participating in the movement, and these resolution to the following effect was adopted: "That the Board deem it inexpedient to take any further action in regard to the contemplated regimental encampment for instruction, on account of the want of means to enable the regiment to do so, the State having made no appropriation for its soldiers.'

It was further ordered that the money collected from such citizens as subscribed in aid Marks, deputy collector of internal revenue, of the object be refunded. Colonel Sloan stated that if any company desired to visit the mountains on their own tents and camp equipage, or any other equipments necessary over which he had control. The necessity for this action on the part of the executive body of the regiment is much rupt; Upon the petition of George W. Hato be regretted, as the benefits accruing to the regiment in discipline and otherwise by such an encompment as the one proposed would have been almost incalculable.

DWELLING-HOUSE BURNED .- The dwellinghouse of Mr. L. Gimmi, State Weighmaster of Live Stock, situated on Moore street (No 704) near Bacon's Quarter Branch, was de stroyed by fire yesterday morning about 3 o'clock. Loss, $1,500; insured for $900 with Messrs. T. M. Alfriend & Son, agents. It is supposed that the fire originated in the kitchen, though it is not yet positively ascertained. Mr. Gimmi narrowly escaped from the burning building by jumping from one of the windows. In addition to his individual loss, Mr. Gimmi had in his possession about $50 which was also burned. He had collected the amount as State Weighmaster and had been prevented from turning it over before his house was destroyed.

each of the escaped convicts. This is the first experiment of hiring white convicts upon public works. The large railroad contractors in the Valley have never been willing to take them, as they are said to be more inclined to plot measures of behavior. escape than to work.

THE PYTHIAN EXCURSION TO SHIRLEY .-The pic-nic and excursion given by Virginia Lodge, No. 2, Knights of Pythias, on Wednesday, like the former visit of this Lodge to Shirley, proved a grand success. Everything passed off pleasantly, thanks to the efforts of the committee having charge of the burg. It appears that the people of that arrangements, and now the many friends of of their visit down the river. Notwithstanding the heavy rain which fell during the day, a very large number of persons availed in the festivities of the occasion. Indeed, so many persons joined the excursionists that it became necessary just before leaving Richmond to charter an additional barge in order to the best shot a handsome silver medal. visit to Shirley will doubtless be as successful as the two preceding trips have proven.
